1. You are shining for Me, and shine I will My polishable who want Me—enough to come and pay the price in time, effort, and surrender.

2. I love you. Expanding you I am—along with other expandables who alongside you come now to schools make and enjoy illustrious times of intimacy with Me and what I do in and for them all along the way.

3. The way is great, the path is narrow, but few not come herein to My schools. Many come in, pouring forth their hearts unto, into, before, Me—at My feet, allowing Me to reach and take their hand and say to them—arise—in healing and significance, commensurate with how much they let Me confidence them. Confidence them I will, until I can exponentialize them, as I am doing you—now—exponential squared, and exponential to the exponential.

4. I love you. I'm glad you took math. I'm glad you know business. I'm glad you know of church—some—and how I am changing all these things and the foundations-soft they rest on—to forge impenetrable foundation stones of only Me—solidized and recognized as Me and My people of love and consecration and integrity in all they do—looking out for all their people—in love—all the people they affect and influence.

5. I love you. Thank you for reviewing My words given and rereading what I've given you and so many to read and reread and glisten as they glean Me in these truth-pages.

6. I love you. Here—all okay. I love you. She's here—My co-conspirator who conspires and desires to please only Me. My co-queen who loves Me deeply who I exalt this day—I love her, I love her, I love here. Oh genuine, so genuine. I love her, I love her, I love her.

7. I love her. I love her. I love her. I love her so deeply and arising her I am above many—heights unknown—unrecognized right now—but solidly solidizing all people, and erroneous touched, taught, imparted to—faithfully following Me, on bended knee—many hours past, many hours future—in My hand, in My hand, in My hand fully—completely, totally—trusted. I love her. I love you. I love My trustable.

8. I love who will come through My schools and pay the price in time and surrender—for both are equal in Me—both are one, though most don't think so. One—one—many ones in Me and I'll reveal many of them to you—and My trustables.

9. I love you. Meeting enjoy with who I bring. I love you. Exalt, enjoy, laugh, plan.

10. Exalted this day—My team who enlarges My plan to execute growth, maturity, and intimacy, in My body unimaginable—like never before.

11. Bekker comes—in My timing, timing. Be encouraged and bless and glean and encourage and exhort in My tenderness of loving kindness to spend more time with Me—so giant make—giant is—giant matures—giant giants make. My chosen who has chosen Me—arises, arises, arises. Wait patiently, patiently before Me—I arise you magnanimously—in preparation to only Me. I am, you are, My chosen. I love you. Soon here, soon there, soon all over—Mine. Mine—glistening and gleaning and gleaner-maker of many. My giant, My son, My love.

12. I love you My chosen people—for I have chosen you all—hand crafting each of you, into likeness of Me, for Me, in every aberration thought-good, thought-bad, thought-sad. I reflect Me in every one of you—designed, now released if you choose Me enough—deeply enough, desperately wanting Me enough to let Me be Me in you so I can truly let you be you, and in My big world soar, glide, with healing under your wings—propelled, fueled by love, deep, deep, true love.

13. I love you. I choose you. Thank you—please choose Me, choose to mature and grow and glean and glisten in Me.

I love you, I love you, I love you.

Ted Cottingham Ministries Inc., Tulsa, Ok. USA

Unlike any school you've ever experienced, the University of the New Covenant-a school of prayer and freedom, intimacy and practical creativity, opens in the fall of 2005. Between now and then, multiple multi-purpose one week interactive schools will take place.

The first formal session will be a one week long creative design session, held the third week of May, in Tulsa, to bring together people who know in their heart there is a way to create a new instructional design model: one that will focus on leadership, scholarship, excellence and mastery of material, but also give entrance into that learning environment for God Himself to speak and teach, to reveal His revelation about the subjects being studied.

A call for papers to be presented during this week long creative design session is hereby being made. Each week long session will help lay the foundation for the new University of the New Covenant.

Interact with others to create and bring forth the experiential design models that will be used in this new school. If you want more information on this first session coming up, let us know. Thank you.

The book Ted is writing now places some of these words from the Lord into subject order, focusing on the new things that God is doing.
